Will your company be poised to receive requests for quote from new customers?

Will your company reduce its marketing and sales costs by using direct Internet marketing techniques? Ask us about our “Hot” new Just-In-Time advertisement. Direct and timely ads available only through buyCASTINGS

You can now receive Requests for Quotes and Purchase Orders online from foundries worldwide through buyCASTINGS.com buyCASTINGS.com, The Metal Casting e-Marketplace of the Future has unveiled a new section on its e-commerce web site, the “SUPPLIER CONNECTION”.

This allows suppliers like your self to receive requests for quote from any foundry in the world including the hundreds of foundries in our expanding “Casting Universe”.

Whether its metal, shipping, prototypes, computers, equipment, engineering services or any other service or supply a foundry may need, it can be requested at one site, www.buyCASTINGS.com. Best of all there is no cost for foundries to access suppliers.

Requests will be sent electronically to registered suppliers for quotation, you quote directly to the requesting foundry, the foundry can choose the supplier, and then place a purchase order with the supplier. It’s just that simple!

Don’t miss the opportunity to get additional business at minimal cost. Over 180 suppliers are now online with us.
